41. Plaintiff admits that he has asserted a claim to the NYU Plan benefits. Plaintiff denies that his claim is based on escheatment and denies any suggestion that the benefits are payable to any party other than the Estate of David F. Greenberg.

42. Plaintiff denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 42 and denies that DSA is entitled to any relief whatsoever.

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

DSA lacks standing to bring a claim under ERISA § 502(a)(1)(B) because it is not a proper “beneficiary” within the meaning of the statute. The contingent beneficiary designation naming NAM is not valid or enforceable due to NAM’s lack of legal existence at the time of Greenberg’s death and the absence of a properly documented, legally cognizable successor designation.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The purported beneficiary designation in favor of NAM lapsed or became void due to the dissolution or legal nonexistence of NAM at the time of Greenberg’s death. The NYU Plan does not permit benefits to be paid to an entity that ceased to exist decades earlier and was never formally designated under the Plan terms.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

To the extent DSA failed to exhaust available administrative remedies under the NYU Plan before asserting its claim, its counter-claim is barred.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Even if DSA claims to be NAM’s successor, neither the NYU Plan nor ERISA permits a non-designated successor entity to receive benefits without a valid, participant-executed change of beneficiary designation. No such change was made designating DSA as a beneficiary.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Benefits under the NYU Plan must be paid strictly in accordance with the written terms of the Plan and relevant annuity contracts. Those terms do not authorize payment to a defunct or merged entity absent a valid designation.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

DSA was not in privity with Greenberg and lacks any enforceable right under the NYU Plan or the governing annuity contracts.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff reserves the right to assert additional defenses as discovery progresses or as additional facts become known.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff demands a trial by jury on all issues so triable.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Martin Hecht, as Administrator of the Estate of David F. Greenberg, respectfully requests that the Court dismiss the Counter-Claim of Defendant Democratic Socialists of America, Inc. in its entirety with prejudice, enter judgment in favor of Plaintiff, and grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
